MEDIA ADVISORY

American Heritage Girls, Inc. Moves to First Standalone Building in 24 Years Faith-Based Non-Profit to Celebrate New Building with Ribbon-Cutting and Dedication

WHO: American Heritage Girls, Inc. (AHG)

WHAT: Ribbon-cutting and building dedication ceremony in celebration of American Heritage Girl Inc.'s new office building. The event theme is "A City on a Hill."

WHEN: Friday, Oct. 11 from 2 to 4 p.m.

WHERE: 35 Tri-County Parkway, Cincinnati, Ohio 45246

WHY: American Heritage Girls Inc. moved into the ministry's first standalone building since its inception 24 years ago. The new office is over 20,000 square feet and features a chapel, AHG gift shop, and AHG display room showcasing the ministry's history and memorabilia.

HOW: The event will feature a flag ceremony presented by a local AHG Troop. Remarks will be provided by Patti Garibay, AHG's Founder & Executive Director, along with words from AHG Board President, Rob Rye and Springdale Mayor, Doyle Webster. Marshal Duke, Pastoral Care Pastor of Springdale Nazarene Church, will provide closing remarks and prayer.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Local media and honored guests of American Heritage Girls.

American Heritage Girls is dedicated to the mission of building women of integrity through service to God, family, community, and country. Founded in 1995 in Cincinnati, Ohio, AHG has grown from ten Troops and 100 members to over 52,000 members across 15 countries and 50 states. Girl Members participate in Badge Programs, service projects, leadership opportunities and outdoor experiences, all with an emphasis on Christian values and family involvement.
