American Heritage Girls* appreciates, empowers, and encourages AHG volunteers and staff to build godly girls for the future

AHGinspire Leadership Conference from June 9-11, 2022 includes renowned speakers including Ryan and Bethany Bomberger, Dr. Juli Slattery, Mark Hancock, Tina Griffin, and more

CINCINNATI, Ohio — American Heritage Girls (AHG, www.americanheritagegirls.org), the premier faith-based, scout-type leadership development program for girls ages five to 18, is proud to not only encourage and equip girls with the tools needed to becoming godly girls of integrity, but also provide their volunteers and leaders with unique development opportunities in order to maximize the impact for the future generations of girls.

AHG is hosting the AHGinspire Leadership Conference from June 9-11, 2022, at the Springdale Nazarene Church in Cincinnati, Ohio. The conference is held every four years and gives AHG the opportunity to appreciate, empower, and encourage AHG volunteers and staff.

“We really are so excited for what the Holy Spirit will do at the upcoming AHGinspire Conference,” stated Patti Garibay, AHG founder and executive director. “This conference has been specifically designed and prayed over to provide a time of refreshment for the adult leaders of AHG.”

The conference will include notable speakers such as Ryan and Bethany Bomberger of The Radiance Foundation, founder of “Counter Culture Mom” Tina Griffin, Trail Life CEO Mark Hancock, clinical psychologist Dr. Juli Slattery, comedian Mike Goodwin, and more!

Garibay commented, “Now, more than ever, Christians are called to serve as lights in the darkness. The culture begs for wholeness, and we are the lamplighters whose fuel is Biblical truth. Our AHG volunteers are investing into the lives of the next generation of young women and know the importance of truth and generational faith. We are blessed to disciple the next generation through the fun that is AHG.

“We are so honored to be able to provide a conference experience that I believe will be like no other — a time to unleash the power of the Holy Spirit throughout our AHG community and beyond!”

American Heritage Girls was founded in 1995 by a group of parents who wanted this faith-based, scout-type character development program for their daughters. At AHG, girls ages five to 18 meet together as a single

Troop at the same time and then break out into Units by Levels. This gives AHG girls the important social experience of interacting with friends and godly mentors of various ages; members also learn leadership skills within a group setting. AHG Troops are located in local communities across the nation. If none exists in a given area, families can bring the AHG Program to their own area. An American Heritage Girls Troop Development Coach is available to provide resources to potential Charter Organizations and other families to form a new Troop. Today, there are Troops in all 50 states and girls being served in 15 countries around the globe. Girls can join a Troop at any time; if a Troop is not available nearby, they can become a Trailblazer and enjoy the AHG program alongside their parent. A variety of Christian denominations are also represented as Charter Organizations for Troops. Thousands of volunteer members across the country are helping girls grow in their faith, cultivate a heart for service, enjoy the great outdoors, and have more fun than they can imagine.

The “Raising Godly Girls” radio feature and Raising Godly Girls blog shares guidance and biblically based advice on many key topics affecting girls today—from bullying and identity to anxiety and body image issues. It gives parents, educators, and faith community leaders a set of tools, resources, and Scripture-based advice to assist in raising girls after God’s own heart. The “Raising Godly Girls Minute” with Patti Garibay airs on 900+ Christian radio stations across the country.
