Internship Program

The Global Internship Program is an exciting opportunity for college students and recent graduates who sense a calling to the ministry of Samaritan's Purse, where they can use their skills to impact the world in a tangible way and share the love of Jesus Christ with those who are hurting. Whether at our international headquarters in North Carolina or in one of our field offices around the globe, interns will experience the intricate workings of an international nonprofit and be a part of bringing relief and the hope of the Gospel to suffering people.

Apprenticeship Program

The Apprenticeship Program is for recent college graduates who sense a calling to serve with Samaritan's Purse and are passionate about sharing God's love through His Son, Jesus Christ. The program equips participants with the needed skills and experience to begin a fulfilling career within Samaritan's Purse, all while offering a full-time salary and benefits. The goal of the program is to transition an apprentice to long-term employment as quickly as possible based on the requisite training needs of each position. Apprentices who complete their training will be resilient future leaders, equipped to serve with excellence in Jesus' Name.
